Protect your largest investment and get the peace of mind you deserve with a homeowner policy through Armed Forces Insurance.

Homeowner Policy Coverages Include:

Dwelling
Dwelling Coverage includes the structural elements of your home to include walls, roof, flooring, cabinetry, countertops, etc. It also includes coverage for permanently attached equipment, appliances and fixtures.

Other Structures
Coverage for structures on the same premises that are not attached to your home and are not used for business or rental purposes.

Personal Property
Coverage for furniture, clothing, electronics, appliances, tools, power equipment, and other belongings in your home.

Loss of Use
Coverage for necessary additional expenses that you incur if your home is damaged by a covered loss requiring you to reside elsewhere during the repairs, up to your policy’s limits.

Liability
Coverage to protect your assets that may be at risk if a lawsuit is filed against you or an accident occurs on your premises resulting in injury or damage to others. Liability insurance also covers legal defense costs for covered losses.

Medical Payments
Coverage for medical expenses for your guests who are accidentally injured at your home.

Homeowner insurance isn’t a “one size fits all” policy. That’s why you have an option to add additional coverages that allow you to customize your policy.
